BETHEL SEEKING SOLDIER RECORD

NEARLY COMPLETE HISTORY OF VETERAN DEAD SECURED

Committee Reports 198 Soldiers' Graves, With Record Found of All But 20.—Seven Cemeteries, Including Two Out of Town, Mapped.—Aim Is to Find and Identify Every Grave.—Dead of All the Nation's Wars, Including Those of French and Indian and Revolution Are Located.—Many Authorities Searched for Facts and Details.—War Department Will Furnish Stones for Unmarked Graves.—Worthwhile Work.

Another Memorial day will soon be here. In past years the graves of veterans buried in Bethel have been decorated from memory, or tradition handed down. No list of veterans can be found, and probably no list was ever made, and only one cemetery (Gilead) has ever been mapped, as far as can be learned. The G. A. R. has furnished about one hundred markers for its deceased comrades, and veterans of other wars, but as there are about two hundred veterans buried in town, these markers covered only about one-half of the graves. Often, while mowing the cemeteries, these markers were moved onto the wrong grave, and the wrong grave decorated for years before the mistake was discovered.

Since last summer, Roy Savage, representing the Sons of Veterans, and Paul Wilson, for the American Legion, have been mapping every gravestone (with the information thereon) in the seven cemeteries in Bethel and the Abbott cemetery in Stockbridge, near Goodale's mill, and the Hickey or Howe cemetery on the Barnard North Road. (The G. A. R. always assumed the responsibility of these two cemeteries, therefore the Legion is carrying on this work.) Also much time has been spent in collecting data on the military service and life of those buried therein. In former years only about 135 graves were decorated in these cemeteries.

At present there are a possible 198 veterans, of whom the record of all but about 20 has been definitely determined. In cases of doubt, the veteran, or possible veteran, was given the benefit of doubt. The military data and life history of the different veterans was obtained, partly from the following sources, and partly from descendants:—The Adjutant-General at Washington, D. C. and of the various states, referred to as "Adj. Gen. W. D. C. or Vt.-Mass. etc." Bureau of Pensions at Washington and Bureau of Vital Statistics at Montpelier; Lovejoy's History of Royalton; Child's Windsor County Directory, (1883) referred to as "Child's Gaz."); History of Windsor County, by Aldrich in 1891; Roster of Vermont Volunteers in the Revolution, Vermont Revolutionary Rolls, Bethel Courier files from 1892 to 1926, Guy Wilson's seven scrap books of clippings of newspapers, letters, etc., which is a history of Bethel in itself; Cox's history of Bethel and Randolph, 1895. The collectors found the most difficulty in locating the veterans of the Second war with England (War of 1812). Both the Vermont and Federal records for this war are very incomplete and about 15 of the 20 above mentioned doubtful veterans are thought to have fought in this war.

It is hoped that all members of the W. R. C., the Legion and other patriotic orders, descendants and relatives of veterans and all patriotic persons will clip these lists from the Courier, and see that all the veterans' graves are mowed and properly cared for on Memorial days, and decorated with a flag. A list of veterans, with a map of the cemeteries, will be placed in the East Bethel and Bethel library, and the library of the school nearest each cemetery, hoping that this book will assist in the Memorial day exercises, and possibly some of the United States history lessons can be made more interesting by connecting up certain battles and campaigns with veterans buried nearby.

The War Department, through the Quartermaster-General, will furnish, free of cost, stones for any veteran of any United States war (the French and Indian War is not included) with the following inscription thereon:—Name of veteran; date of death and age; company and regiment. These are delivered by the government at the nearest freight station, free of charge, and the recipients have to pay for the transportation from the station to the cemetery and for having the stones properly erected over the grave. Soon a requisition will be put in to the War Department for these 30 stones. There will be considerable expense in doing this, as well as buying some 75 to 100 French and Indian war, Revolution, War of 1812, or Civil war markers, which cost at least $1 apiece, and contributions are asked for, from relatives and descendants of these veterans, and from other patriotic persons.

In drawing up this list of veterans, certain mistakes and omissions are unavoidable, and it is requested that anyone noticing same, would communicate with the Bethel Courier office, Bethel, Vt.

Further data concerning graves of soldiers buried in Bethel and sketches of the soldiers, with their record of service will be published from week to week in these columns.

Fairview Cemetery

Fairview Cemetery, Bethel, Vt., one mile north of village. Veterans buried therein. (Old means west part, new means east part, which has been surveyed):—

Y., from July 17 to Aug. 1, 1778.

Connecticut service, from Adj.-Gen. of Conn.:—Served in company from Woodstock, Conn., during Lexington Alarm, private in 7th Co., Capt. Manning's Co., 3rd Reg., Col. Israel Putnam, commanding, from May to December, 1775. Also private in Capt. Stone's Co. in Col. Lattimer's Reg. at battle of Saratoga, N. Y., August to November, 1777.

Ainsworth, Wyman. (Revolution?)—Buried old part, 10-D on stone, died March 20, 1834, 73 yrs. old, making him born about 1761.

Service—Tradition says that he was a soldier in the Revolution, but his name is not on Massachusetts or Connecticut records.

Life history—Wyman Ainsworth married Elizabeth Howe, daughter of Lord Admiral Howe, Jan. 31, 1781. Wyman born in Woodstock, Conn., March 23, 1761, came to Bethel in 1790. He took the Freeman's oath in Bethel in 1795, and was second constable in Bethel in 1796. In 1800 Wyman lived on Christian Hill, near the present Sanford farm.

Baker, W. F. (Civil war)—Buried new part, Range 7, lot 4. On stone, "1842-1904."

Barnes, Raymond. World war.—Buried Fairview, new part, Range 7, lot 5. Has no gravestone. Raymond Barnes, son of H. G. Barnes of Bethel, enlisted Dec. 12, 1917, at Fort Slocum, N. Y., and was assigned to the 23rd Eng. at Camp Meade, Maryland. Later he was sent to the hospital, and discharged for tubercular trouble in March, 1918. He died from the same trouble, Feb. 6, 1919.

Beckwith, Charles M., World war.—Buried Fairview, new part, Range 1, lot 8. Has no tombstone.

Charles Beckwith, son of John Beckwith, graduated from W. H. S. in 1913 and attended U. V. M. In 1916 he enlisted, along with 30 other Bethel boys, during the Mexican crisis, in the 1st Vt. Cav. at Fort Ethan Allen, commanded by Major Wallace Batchelder of Bethel. Later he was transferred to the Supply Co. of the 1st Vt. Inf. and mustered out in the fall of 1916. The 1st Vt. was called out early in April, 1917, to do guard duty on the railroad. In the summer of 1917 Charles Beckwith was transferred to the 57th Pioneers, and he sailed for France in October, 1918, and died of the influenza Oct. 15, shortly after arriving. He sailed across with Harold Bundy, Ed. Rogers, Arthur Bowen and Clyde Blossom. Noble-Beckwith Post, 16, A. L. is named after Charles Beckwith.

Brooks, Capt. Simeon. (Revolution?)—On stone, "Died Sept. 21, 1822, 62 yrs. old, Capt. 3rd Co., 2nd Reg. Militia."

No record of his serving in Revolution or War of 1812 has been found, but it is thought he was in one of these wars. He came to Bethel from Connecticut in 1780 and lived up the Branch, on the west side. He was born in Warren, Mass., Oct. 24, 1760.

Chamberlin, Amos B. Civil war.—Buried Fairview old part, Range 12, lot 5.

Service—Enlisted from Bethel, Oct. 26, 1862, in Co. A, 16th Vt., and mustered out Aug. 10, 1863. On his stone is, "Born July 25, 1823, died Jan. 29, 1891. Co. A, 16th Vt."

Service from Adj. Gen., Montpelier—Residence, Stockbridge. Served in Capt. Elias Keyes' Co. at Plattsburg, Sept. 1814, eight days.

He came to Bethel from Stockbridge in 1822. Had nine children, of whom three settled in Bethel. Belle Chamberlin Gillette of Randolph is his great-granddaughter.

Chapman, Capt. Chester. (Rev. or War of 1812?)—Buried old part, R. 9, L. 14.

On his stone is written, "Capt. Chester Chapman, Died Feb. 8, 1818, aged 56 yrs." He lived up the Branch about 1800. Can trace no military service at Adj.-Gen. office, Montpelier.

Child, Daniel, (1812 Vet?)—Buried Fairview Cem. old part, R. 9, L. 2. On stone, "Born Aug. 6, 1779, died Jan. 7, 1853.

Service—Family tradition that he walked to Plattsburg in 1814, but did not get there until after the battle. Adj.-Gen., Montpelier, has following record.—"Daniel Childe, private in Capt. Simeon Wright's Co., served from May 1, 1813, to Apr. 30, 1814." but it is doubtful if this is the Bethel Daniel Child.

Life History—Daniel Child lived on a farm in Rochester Little Hollow from 1805 to the fall of 1818, when he moved to Bethel. He was a public-spirited man, and held many town offices, among which were town clerk and sexton of Fairview cemetery, and his record of burials made from 1790 to 1852 were of great help in making up this list of Bethel veterans. He was grandfather of the present Daniel Child and Dr. E. J. C. Freeman of Bethel.

Cleveland, Edward. (Revolution?)—Buried old part. An old sketch of the Cleveland family says that he was in Revolution and taken prisoner to England, and that he was buried in town burying ground. Bethel vital statistics read that he died Oct. 6, 1801, aged 40 yrs. Evidently a stone never was erected for him, or it has been destroyed.

Service—"Edward Cleveland enlisted Aug. 2, 1778, as private in Capt. David Cady's Co., Col. Chapman's Reg., in Rhode Island. Discharged Dec. 12, 1778. No residence given." No official record can be found of his captivity. Daniel Cleveland of California writes:—"It always has been a tradition in our family that Edward Cleveland was captured by the British, taken to England, and kept there until after the war ended. I have seen an English Almanac dated 1783 which, tradition says, Edward brought back with him from England."

Edward Cleveland probably was buried in the family lot, beside his brother, Stephen Cleveland.

Cleveland, Stephen, Esq., Revolution—On stone, "Died May 17, 1835, 71 yrs. old." Range 13, L. 8, old part.

Service—Pension rolls of Windsor Co., 1818:—"Private and Artisan, Conn. Continental Line." From Conn. Adj.-Gen.—"Steven Cleveland enlisted as private Aug. 19, 1782, to July 19, 1783, in Capt. Benj. Durkee's Co. of Matrosses. No residence given."

Life History—Huntington Family history, page 946:—"Stephen moved to Plainfield, N. H., in 1783 and to Bethel in 1791. He was gunner's assistant in Revolution."

Randolph History, page 119, says Cleveland came from Canterbury, Conn.

He took Freeman's oath in Bethel in 1794. Was justice of peace in 1802 and for many years. Was a lieutenant in the militia, and highly respected citizen of Bethel in the early part of last century, living on the Cleveland farm on Royalton Hill, now owned by S. B. Stanton.

Davenport, Henry D. (Civil war)—Mr. Davenport died in Bethel Feb. 10, 1924, 73 yrs., 4 months, 4 days. Buried Fairview, R. 14, Lot 5, new, and has no stone.

Vt., in Co. H., 6th Vt., Aug. 14, 1861, as musician. Discharged Nov. 11, 1862.

Life History—He was one of the youngest volunteers in the Civil war, serving in the company in which his father was captain as drummer boy. His father, Capt. David Davenport, was wounded at Lee's Mills, and died soon after. He was widely known about the state as a drummer, and played twice at the House of Representatives at Montpelier, besides playing all over the state at different times. He was the 107th (next to the last) member of Post 61, G. A. R.

Dean, W. L. (Civil war)—On stone, "Died Oct. 15, 1864, 18 yrs., 8 months. Youngest son of Elkanah and Naomi Dean," Buried R. 1, Lot 8, old part.

Service—Enlisted from Bethel in 3rd Vt., Light Bat., Oct. 19, 1863, and died of disease, Oct. 16, 1864.

Dunham, Capt. Othniel. (War of 1812)—On gravestone, "Died Dec. 31, 1868, 82 yrs. old. Buried old, R. 4, L. 11.

Service record from Vt. Adj.-Gen.:—"Othniel Dunham, residence Stockbridge, served in Capt. Elias Keyes' Co. at Plattsburg, September, 1814, 8 days."

Mrs. Holmes writes that Othniel Dunham was lieutenant in Capt. Keyes' Co. organized at Middlebury. Mr. Dunham got together many men and marched over mountain to Middlebury.

Life History—From Child's Gaz., page 93, "Othniel Dunham came to Bethel from Newport, N. H., and located in Bethel with his brother, Solomon, in the clothing business. Later he moved to Capt. Othniel Dunham place on upper Camp brook, where he died in 1868."

Dunham, Thomas. (French and Indian war)—No gravestone. From Daniel Child's sexton's record, burial No. 70, about 1800, states, "Old Mr. Dunham, 1st settler," and was buried old part, 7 E.

Service—Gerry's History of Bethel—Thomas Dunham came to Bethel from Brimfield, Mass., in 1791, and was a soldier in the French and Indian war at Ticonderoga.

Life History—From Bethel town records, Book 1, page 9—Sept. 17, 1792. Thomas Dunham declared himself a member of the Baptist church.

Bethel Land Records, Book 1, page 143, shows that Thomas Dunham owned in 1791 what is at present the Mary Quimby farm near Bethel Lillieville.

He was one of the first settlers in Bethel, if not the first, and built the first saw mill in Bethel, on the site of the present Bethel Mills, and for the building of this was granted the mill lot, which included more than half of the present village of Bethel. The Paige family used to quarry millstones from this ledge, which was probably the first commercial use of Bethel granite. This part of their farm is still known as "Millstone Ledge." After the war Ziba N. Paige worked for twelve years for the Lane Mfg. Co. of Montpelier. For the next seventeen years he farmed in Brockfield, Vt., and then he came to the old Paige Homestead on Christian Hill.

In this pack he started with $150 in silver, but because of chafing, had to change this $150 to Boston bank bills. He lived three years in Pomfret, then in 1810 bought in Bethel Bethel Gilead, building first a log cabin. Service—From Adj.-Gen., W. D. C.:—"Luther Grover in Capt. Stillwell's Co. in 2nd or 6th Co., 1st Reg., of Conn., commanded by Capt. John Durkee. Grover enlisted March 5, 1781, trans. in May or June, 1783, to the 2nd Co., Col. Herman Swift's Conn. Reg., and his name last appears on muster roll of September, 1783."

Life—G. Wilson, Book 1, Page 29 (about 1800):—"Leaving the Branch road near Mr. Chase's and turning to the left in Gilead, lived old Mr. Grover and his son, Luther M. Owen, Joel Rabbitt, Mr. Wood, a Quaker; James Huntington and Capt. Benj. Batchelder, etc." From this account, and the Bethel Records, it would seem that Luther Grover lived on the present home farm of Gerald Fish.

From Page 41 of same book:—"The Old Church was built in the fall of 1823, at a cost of $1,890. The parsonage was built in 1827, costing with land, $974. Bibye Lake Cotton, Luther Grover and Asa Smith each gave $100." This parsonage is the present home of Olla Quimby.

Powers, Harrison, (Civil war). On stone, "Died Dec. 20, 1907, aged 68 yrs. Co. E, 8th Vt." Buried Range E, Lot 1.

Service—From Vermont Roster:—"Enlisted from Moretown, Vt., in Co. E, 8th Vt., Dec. 14, 1861. Taken prisoner Sept. 4, 1862. Paroled Nov. 13, 1862. Disc. July 22, 1864." He was the 98th member of Post 61, G. A. R., joining in 1894.

Life—From Bethel Courier of Dec. 26, 1907:—"Mr. Powers was born in Moretown, April 15, 1839, the son of Isaac and Amelia (Clapp) Powers. He married Ada, daughter of Daniel Kelsey, and for many years lived on the old Kelsey place on the Barnard North road. He died at his home near the Old Church of chronic nephritis."

Putnam, Capt. Ezra. (War of 1812?). On stone, "Died Dec. 21, 1873, 81 yrs., 5 mos., 23 days old."

Service—The Adj.-Gen. at Montpelier or at W. D. C. cannot find the name of Ezra Putnam on the rolls of veterans of 1812 war, but the rolls for this war are very incomplete.

Life—Child's Directory, Page 93:—"Ezra Putnam came from Sutton, Mass., at an early date and settled on a farm in the southern part of the town, where he attained the great age of 90 years. (This is the man mentioned heretofore as Revolutionary veteran, buried in Cherry Hill cemetery). His six children permanently settled in Bethel. Ezra, Jr., the fourth child, born in 1792, reared seven children, three of whom now reside in Bethel." (This directory dated 1883.)

Smith, Benjamin. (Revolution). On stone, "Born Dec. 6, 1753, Died Sept. 12, 1822." Buried Range D, Lot 4.

Service—Vt. Rev. Rolls, Pages 341, 389, 444 and 446, which gives service in 1781 on the Newbury alarm, and others, under in Benj. Wait's Battalion. (Is this the right Benj. Smith?)

Life—G. Wilson's Book 1, Pages 15, 28 and 42:—"Benj. Smith was the first settler in Bethel, and one of the proprietors. He was a native of Connecticut and married Lois Chase, daughter of Dudley Chase of Cornish, N. H., in 1779. In the summer of 1789 he and his wife came to Bethel and built a log cabin on the Smith farm (in 1926 the Pearl Bowen farm). When Royalton was burned the family had to go to the Bethel fort. Mrs. Smith taking her son, Asa Smith, only a few days old, into the fort. Asa Smith was the first white boy born in Bethel. After the Royalton alarm subsided, Mrs. Smith took her infant on horseback to safer quarters in Cornish, N. H., meeting with no more serious accident than losing her babe once or twice from her arms while journeying along. In the course of time he cleared his farm, and built the house where Squire Bowen now lives and on this place both Mr. and Mrs. Smith died. They performed the labors and endured the hardships of pioneers, thus opening the way for better days for their descendants."

Horton, Nehemiah. (Revolution). Where is he buried in Bethel?

Nehemiah Horton was the son of Jonathan and Phoebe (Ormsbee) Horton. Born in Dighton, Mass., in 1759, and died in Bethel, Vt., about 1830. In September, 1829, he gave a life lease of his farm to his son, Roswell, and in 1832 his son deeded this farm, which was situated between Lympus Four Corners and where Jerome Shaw lives in 1926. He probably is buried somewhere in Bethel, possibly in one of the unmarked graves in Lympus cemetery.

Service—Private in Capt. Peter Pitts' Co., Col. Timothy Walker's Reg. Muster roll dated Aug. 1, 1775. Enlisted May 2, 1775, served three months, and six days. Also company return dated Oct. 5, 1775. Williams' Reg., known as the lower reg. of Cumberland county. Entered service Sept. 25, 1778, and disc. Oct. 16, 1778, 25 days' service.

"And those who died of disease contracted in such honorable service,

"Isaac Hincher, Claim W. 19780, born in Ashford, Conn., Jan. 28, 1759. Served as private in following Conn. Troops:—From January, 1776 for two months in Capt. Benj. Clark's Co. and Col. Douglas Reg.; From Sept. 7, 1776, for three months, Caleb Hendeet's Co., Experience Storrs' Reg.; From January, 1777, in same Co.; From Sept. 1, 1779, for two months in Joseph Whitmore's Co., Joseph Abbott's Reg.; From Jan. 1, 1780, for two months in Capt. Lyons Co. and Col. Dana's Reg.; From May, 1780, for two months in Capt. Wm. Howard's Co., Col. Wadsworth's Reg.

Life—G. Wilson's Book 1, Page 29:—"Mr. Hincher lived on Christian Hill about 1800, on the present Fred Stevens farm."

From Town Records, Book 1/2, Page 42, Isaac Hincher took the Freeman's oath in 1784, so he must have been one of the first settlers.

Putnam, Ebenezer, Gen. (Revolution). Buried in Ebenezer Putnam cemetery, about 1,000 feet east of Dana Shaw's farm dwelling, between road and river, located on North road to Gaysville. At present there is only one stone in this cemetery and that has no inscription on it. Jan. 4, 1891, the late Louise Austin of Bethel stated that "Gen. Ebenezer Putnam lived where Myron Burnett used to live (in 1926 the C. E. Noble farm) at mouth of Locust Creek, and that Gen. Putnam laid out this cemetery across the river from his place. Annie Austin, wife of Capt. Abial Austin, says that there must have been about 100 buried there, and none removed, except one, which was robbed by grave robbers. Last one buried there was child of Lyman Rogers in 1891. Formerly there was a stone there dated 179, Mrs. Bickford. Mr. Bickford used to have a blacksmith shop where the McLaughlin iron foundry now is at mouth of Locust Creek. Capt. Abial Austin used to have a blacksmith shop between the Putnam cemetery and the Lattimer (Dana Shaw) farm dwelling.

Old residents remembered many stones, which had inscriptions, in this cemetery, and they probably were ploughed under, or broken off, for none can be found.

Mrs. Ellen Lattimer of Randolph writes that Ebenezer was probably buried in this cemetery.

Service—Ebenezer Putnam born in Sutton, Mass., Sept. 7, 1738, died in Bethel May 4, 1808. He was private at Lexington alarm on roll of Capt. Andrew Elliot's Co., Col. Leonard's Reg., which marched to alarm of Apr. 19, 1775, from Sutton. Thirteen days' service. Also private in Capt. John Howard's Co., Col. Sam Brewer's Reg. (Mass.) This roll made up, or travel allowance, etc., from Saratoga home, 184 miles. Warrant for pay dated March 12, 1777.

Life—Ebenezer took Freeman's oath 1784. Was selectman 1784-1785, and proprietor of Bethel.

Blanchard, Simeon, (Revolution.) Is he buried in Bethel?

G. Wilson's Book 1, Page 75, in writeup of Sarah Blanchard Chapman, aged 101 yrs. in 1901 says:—"Sarah B. Chapman is a daughter of Simeon and Jerima Blanchard. Her father enlisted July 19, 1777, as private in Capt. John Bradford's Co., Col. Mason Nichols' Reg. N. H. troops will pay such sums as the selectmen may agree upon to each man, being an inhabitant of this state, whom the selectmen may enlist to serve in the army of the United States, payment to be made at the time of mustering into the U. S. Service."

Dec. 19, 1864, at town meeting (it appears that Bethel had town meetings rather often in those days) voted "that selectmen are authorized to enlist men up to the number of 15, and selectmen decide on amount of Bounty."

Annual March meeting, March 7, 1865, shows what a burden these bounties made on the finances of the town
 16 men enlisted, cash $11,280
 3 men enlisted, cash 2,025
 1 nigger enlisted 460
 12 re-enlisted men 4,200
 15 men enlisted this winter .. 10,625."

Besides above amounts, there were many extras, travel fees, pay for men who secured enlistments, etc.

Additions to Burial Records

The following additions to soldier burial records have been made, mostly through correspondence, resulting from the records as published:—

Fairview Cemetery

Austin, Abial (War of 1812). On stone, "Died Sept. 13, 1862, 88 years old." Buried Fairview, West 6 R., 8 L.

Service—From Adj.-Gen. at Montpelier:—"Abiel Austin, 2nd Lieut., of Capt. Nehemiah Noble's Co., volunteered to go to Plattsburg, September, 1813. In service 13 days."

Life—From Guy Wilson's history, Book 1, page 46:—Abiel Austin was one of the founders of the First Universalist church in Bethel, Dec. 29, 1817. Page 49:—"Abiel Austin was born in Salisbury, Conn., Oct. 15, 1774, married January, 1804, Anna Stone, who died March 24, 1873, on the old farm where she was born and always lived. Mr. Austin was well known as a manufacturer of edged tools, such as knives, axes, scythes, etc., having a shop where the Shedd house, which was burned in 1922, formerly stood. The "Bethel" apple tree is sometimes called the "Austin" tree, as the old tree stood on the farm which he owned. He was a captain in the War of 1812, and went to Burlington with his command."

Brooks, Asa, (War of 1812?) On stone, "Born July 31, 1778—Died Aug. 5, 1872." Buried Fairview West, 3 R., 3 Lot.

Service—In a G. A. R. list of veterans, whose graves were to be decorated May 30, 1896, the name of Asa Brooks appears, but the Adj.-Gen. at Montpelier informs us that the name of Asa Brooks does not appear on Vermont, Connecticut or Massachusetts Records.

Burbank, Eleazer, (Revolution).

Buried Cherry Hill, Sec. B., Lot 13. On stone, "Died Nov. 28, 1839—82 yrs. old."

Service—From Adj.-Gen., Montpelier—"Eleazer Burbank, Pvt. in Capt. Bartholomew Woodbury's Co., Col. Job Cushing's (Worcester County) Regt. Enlisted Aug. 13, 1777, discharged Nov. 29, 1777. Service 3 mos., 27 days. Marched to reinforce Northern Army. Place of residence not given."

The Adjutant General also sent the record of two more Eleazer Burbanks from Massachusetts, one from Scarborough, who saw service in 1777 and 1779, and one with the garrison at Fort George in December, 1776, but it is impossible to identify which one of these three is the Bethel Eleazer Burbank. The Burbanks came from Sutton, near Worcester, and it is thought the Worcester Eleazer is correct.

Life—Eleazer Burbank was also a founder of the Universalist church in 1817. Page 29, Book 1, it reads that Eleazer Burbank was living on Christian Hill about 1800. He lived on the farm now owned in 1926 by Mrs. Edith Davis, and Lake Ansel is named after Ansel Burbank, of the same family.

In Bethel town records, Book 1, page 7, Eleazer Burbank took the Freeman's oath in 1788.

Chamberlin, Joseph, (War of 1812). On stone, "Died Aug. 27, 1873, 77 yrs. old." Buried Lympus cemetery, 6 B.

Service—From Adj.-Gen. at Montpelier:—"Joseph Chamberlin, residence Tunbridge, Vt. Light Infantry Co. of Tunbridge. Corp. Capt. David Cox, Lieut. J. C. Smith and myself went as far as Bolton. The company did not go out. Was out 4 days."

Also "Joseph J. Chamberlin, Pvt. in Benj. S. Edgerton's Co., 11th Reg. Pay roll for September and October, 1812—Capt. Edgerton's Co." This latter record probably is not for the Bethel Joseph Chamberlin.

Grover, Amasa, (French and Indian War? Revolution.) Buried Old Church, C. 5. On stone, "Died Jan. 2, 1837, 96 yrs."

Service—From Adj.-Gen. at Montpelier:—"I find on the Mass. Rev. war records the following, 'Grover, Amasa, Mansfield. Private, Capt. Silas Cobb's Co., Col. Danforth Keyes' Regt.; service between date of enlistment, Sept. 2, 1777, and Jan. 2, 1778, 3 months, 29 days, at Rhode Island; also same Co. allowing service for 1 month, 1 day, at Rhode Island; roll sworn to at Providence; also, Capt. Samuel Robinson's Co., Col. Josiah Whitney's Regt.; enlisted July 29, 1778; service 1 month, 14 days, at Rhode Island. Company raised to serve for six weeks from July 29, 1778. Also Capt. John Allen's Co., Col. Thomas Carpenter's Regt.; enlisted July 27, 1780; discharged July 30, 1780: 6 days, travel included, on an alarm at Rhode Island; regiment detached from Bristol Co. militia for 6 days' service; roll dated Norton; also private in a company commanded by Lieut. Ephraim Grover, Col. Isaac Dean's (4th Bristol Co.) Regt.; enlisted Aug. 5, 1780; discharged Aug. 7, 1780; service 4 days, on the alarm at Rhode Island of Aug. 1, 1780. Roll sworn to at Attleborough; also Capt. Josiah Keith's Co., Col. Isaac Dean's (Bristol Co.) Regt. enlisted March 4, 1781; discharged March 16, 1781; service 13 days, at Rhode Island, by order of His Excellency, John Hancock."

Life—From Bethel town records. Book 1, page 7-8:—Amasa Grover took the Freeman's oath in 1775.
